14
15	Plaintiff, ) JOINT STIPULATION TO STAY DISCOVERY
16	v. ) STAY DISCOVERY
17	U.S. PHYSICAL THERAPY, INC., )
18	Defendant. )
19	Plaintiff Weltonia Harris, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated
20	("Plaintiff"), and Defendant U.S. Physical Therapy, Inc. ("USPT") file this Joint Stipulation to
21	Stay Discovery and respectfully state as follows:
22	1. Plaintiff filed her Original Class Action Complaint on September 3, 2010,
23	alleging that USPT violated provisions of the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA").
24	2. Defendant USPT filed its Original Answer on October 4, 2010 and its Amended
25	Answer on October 22, 2010.
26	3. On October 20 and October 22, 2010, the parties conducted a conference
27	according to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) and LR 26-1.
28

1	4. The Defendant has suggested that the parties should examine the identity of the
2	proper defendants to this suit, the venue of this action, and the number of members of the
3	putative class. The Plaintiff has agreed that an expedited inquiry into these topics is appropriate
4	at this time given the nature and scope of this class case.
5	5. The parties wish to avoid burdening the Court with the implementation of a
6	Discovery Plan and a Scheduling Order until this informal inquiry has been completed.
7	6. As such, the parties request that discovery and scheduling deadlines, including
8	discovery regarding class certification and the merits of the claims, be stayed for 60 days from
9	the date of filing this stipulation while the parties work together to resolve these issues.
10	7. Once the stay on discovery is lifted, assuming the case is still pending before this
11	Court, the parties will submit a proposed Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order under Federal
12	Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) and LR 26-1.
13	WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the parties respectfully request that this
14	Court grant the Joint Stipulation to Stay Discovery and stay discovery in this matter for 60 days.
15	DATED: November 3, 2010
